HONOURING THE BEST IN ENVIRONMENTAL EXCELLENCE

The Singapore Environmental Council (SEC) recently recognized the best in Environmental Excellence at the Singapore Environmental Achievement Awards 2012. The SSEA 2012 — which opened for applications on 7 March 2012 and closed on 7 April 2012 — included three new awards, a new regional category for countries in the ASEAN region, in addition to the Public Sector category and the establishment of an Outstanding Senior Category. The ceremony was graced by Dr Vivian Balakrishnan, Minister for the Environment and Water Resources, as Guest of Honour.

Speaking at the event, SEC Chairman Mr. Suhel Matha said, “The aim of these environmental awards is to encourage all stakeholders, including individuals and companies, to take a more active role in safeguarding our environment.”

The winners for the various categories of the SSEA 2012 are as follows:

CDI Outstanding Singapore Environmental Achievement Award
- Woodlands Secondary School
- Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Manufacturing)
- Winner: Asia Pacific Resources Singapore
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Secondary School

Nippon Lief Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Services)
- Joint Winners: IBM Singapore and Sea Island

Lee Foundation Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Public Sector)
- Winner: Temasek Foundation
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Primary School

SECO/Scande Energy Green Innovation Award
- Winner: Hydrogenics (Singapore) Pte Ltd

The SSEA 2012 was held at the Marina Bay Sands. The event was attended by over 600 guests from various sectors, including government officials, industry leaders, and environmentalists. The SSEA 2012 was a great success, with many of the attendees expressing their admiration for the winners and their commitment to environmental sustainability.

ENVIROMENTAL PERFORMANCE A KEY INDICATOR OF SUCCESS

The Singapore Environmental Council (SEC) recently recognized the best in Environmental Excellence at the Singapore Environmental Achievement Awards 2012. The SSEA 2012 — which opened for applications on 7 March 2012 and closed on 7 April 2012 — included three new awards, a new regional category for countries in the ASEAN region, in addition to the Public Sector category and the establishment of an Outstanding Senior Category. The ceremony was graced by Dr Vivian Balakrishnan, Minister for the Environment and Water Resources, as Guest of Honour.

Speaking at the event, SEC Chairman Mr. Suhel Matha said, “The aim of these environmental awards is to encourage all stakeholders, including individuals and companies, to take a more active role in safeguarding our environment.”

The winners for the various categories of the SSEA 2012 are as follows:

CDI Outstanding Singapore Environmental Achievement Award
- Woodlands Secondary School
- Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Manufacturing)
- Winner: Asia Pacific Resources Singapore
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Secondary School

Nippon Lief Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Services)
- Joint Winners: IBM Singapore and Sea Island

Lee Foundation Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Public Sector)
- Winner: Temasek Foundation
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Primary School

SECO/Scande Energy Green Innovation Award
- Winner: Hydrogenics (Singapore) Pte Ltd

The SSEA 2012 was held at the Marina Bay Sands. The event was attended by over 600 guests from various sectors, including government officials, industry leaders, and environmentalists. The SSEA 2012 was a great success, with many of the attendees expressing their admiration for the winners and their commitment to environmental sustainability.

A DEDICATED EFFORT TOWARDS OUR GOOD EARTH

The Singapore Environmental Council (SEC) recently recognized the best in Environmental Excellence at the Singapore Environmental Achievement Awards 2012. The SSEA 2012 — which opened for applications on 7 March 2012 and closed on 7 April 2012 — included three new awards, a new regional category for countries in the ASEAN region, in addition to the Public Sector category and the establishment of an Outstanding Senior Category. The ceremony was graced by Dr Vivian Balakrishnan, Minister for the Environment and Water Resources, as Guest of Honour.

Speaking at the event, SEC Chairman Mr. Suhel Matha said, “The aim of these environmental awards is to encourage all stakeholders, including individuals and companies, to take a more active role in safeguarding our environment.”

The winners for the various categories of the SSEA 2012 are as follows:

CDI Outstanding Singapore Environmental Achievement Award
- Woodlands Secondary School
- Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Manufacturing)
- Winner: Asia Pacific Resources Singapore
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Secondary School

Nippon Lief Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Services)
- Joint Winners: IBM Singapore and Sea Island

Lee Foundation Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Public Sector)
- Winner: Temasek Foundation
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Primary School

SECO/Scande Energy Green Innovation Award
- Winner: Hydrogenics (Singapore) Pte Ltd

The SSEA 2012 was held at the Marina Bay Sands. The event was attended by over 600 guests from various sectors, including government officials, industry leaders, and environmentalists. The SSEA 2012 was a great success, with many of the attendees expressing their admiration for the winners and their commitment to environmental sustainability.

A FIRM COMMITMENT TO ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

The Singapore Environmental Council (SEC) recently recognized the best in Environmental Excellence at the Singapore Environmental Achievement Awards 2012. The SSEA 2012 — which opened for applications on 7 March 2012 and closed on 7 April 2012 — included three new awards, a new regional category for countries in the ASEAN region, in addition to the Public Sector category and the establishment of an Outstanding Senior Category. The ceremony was graced by Dr Vivian Balakrishnan, Minister for the Environment and Water Resources, as Guest of Honour.

Speaking at the event, SEC Chairman Mr. Suhel Matha said, “The aim of these environmental awards is to encourage all stakeholders, including individuals and companies, to take a more active role in safeguarding our environment.”

The winners for the various categories of the SSEA 2012 are as follows:

CDI Outstanding Singapore Environmental Achievement Award
- Woodlands Secondary School
- Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Manufacturing)
- Winner: Asia Pacific Resources Singapore
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Secondary School

Nippon Lief Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Services)
- Joint Winners: IBM Singapore and Sea Island

Lee Foundation Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Public Sector)
- Winner: Temasek Foundation
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Primary School

SECO/Scande Energy Green Innovation Award
- Winner: Hydrogenics (Singapore) Pte Ltd

The SSEA 2012 was held at the Marina Bay Sands. The event was attended by over 600 guests from various sectors, including government officials, industry leaders, and environmentalists. The SSEA 2012 was a great success, with many of the attendees expressing their admiration for the winners and their commitment to environmental sustainability.

GROOVING STUDENTS AS EMBASSADORS FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

The Singapore Environmental Council (SEC) recently recognized the best in Environmental Excellence at the Singapore Environmental Achievement Awards 2012. The SSEA 2012 — which opened for applications on 7 March 2012 and closed on 7 April 2012 — included three new awards, a new regional category for countries in the ASEAN region, in addition to the Public Sector category and the establishment of an Outstanding Senior Category. The ceremony was graced by Dr Vivian Balakrishnan, Minister for the Environment and Water Resources, as Guest of Honour.

Speaking at the event, SEC Chairman Mr. Suhel Matha said, “The aim of these environmental awards is to encourage all stakeholders, including individuals and companies, to take a more active role in safeguarding our environment.”

The winners for the various categories of the SSEA 2012 are as follows:

CDI Outstanding Singapore Environmental Achievement Award
- Woodlands Secondary School
- Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Manufacturing)
- Winner: Asia Pacific Resources Singapore
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Secondary School

Nippon Lief Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Services)
- Joint Winners: IBM Singapore and Sea Island

Lee Foundation Singapore Environmental Achievement Award (Public Sector)
- Winner: Temasek Foundation
- Merit: Yio Chu Kang Primary School

SECO/Scande Energy Green Innovation Award
- Winner: Hydrogenics (Singapore) Pte Ltd

The SSEA 2012 was held at the Marina Bay Sands. The event was attended by over 600 guests from various sectors, including government officials, industry leaders, and environmentalists. The SSEA 2012 was a great success, with many of the attendees expressing their admiration for the winners and their commitment to environmental sustainability.